03. NSSH Beneficiaries Honoured as ‘Special Guests’ on Independence Day 2025

The Ministry of Micro, Small and Medium Enterprises (MSME) honoured the ‘Special Guests’—beneficiaries of the National SC-ST Hub (NSSH) scheme who were invited by the Government of India to witness the Independence Day Ceremony 2025 at the Red Fort, New Delhi. These guests, accompanied by their spouses, came from both rural and urban areas across various States, including the North-Eastern States and Union Territories.

The Hon’ble Union Minister and Hon’ble Minister of State for MSME warmly felicitated the guests and hosted a special lunch in their honour at the Union Minister’s residence in New Delhi. The Secretary, along with other senior officials, also extended a warm welcome to the attendees. Addressing the gathering, the Hon'ble Union Minister expressed delight in hosting SC/ST entrepreneurs invited as 'Special Guests'. He highlighted the launch of the National SC-ST Hub scheme in October, 2016 by the Hon'ble Prime Minister, aimed at fostering an entrepreneurial culture among SC/ST communities and promoting procurement from SC/ST MSEs under the Public Procurement Policy. He reaffirmed that the MSME sector is central to achieving the vision of Viksit Bharat, and under the Hon'ble Prime Minister's leadership, the Ministry has introduced several initiatives to empower MSME, including those led by SC/ST entrepreneurs.

The Hon'ble Minister of State for MSME also addressed the guests, encouraging them to continue working with dedication toward the vision of Viksit Bharat by 2047. She reiterated the Ministry's commitment to inclusive growth through its various schemes. Some of the Special Guests shared their entrepreneurial journeys and expressed heartfelt gratitude to the Government of India for giving them the honour of witnessing the 79th Independence Day celebrations as Special Guests.

GST 2.0 EMPOWERING BUSINESSES

The new reforms bring a major relief to businesses, especially MSMEs and exporters. Filing returns will be simpler and more userfriendly, reducing paperwork and saving time. Refund processes are being streamlined so that exporters and small enterprises have faster access to working capital. Technology is at the heart of the NextGen GST Reforms. With AI-based monitoring and real-time data analytics, the system will quickly detect fraud and plug revenue leakages. For genuine taxpayers, this means less scrutiny, fewer disputes, and smoother compliance.

Support for MSME

Small businesses form the backbone of India's economy, and GST 2.0 is designed to ease their journey.

- Simplified returns to cut down compliance costs.
- E-invoicing expansion to remove errors and make billing seamless.
- Quick refunds for exporters, improving liquidity.
- Digital assistance centres to guide small taxpayers.

By combining simplicity with innovation, GST 2.0 creates an environment where doing business is easier and compliance is fairer. From manufacturers to service providers, enterprises of all sizes will benefit from a tax system that is predictable, transparent, and business-friendly. These reforms will also enhance India's competitiveness globally. By cutting red tape, reducing compliance costs, and ensuring a level playing field, GST 2.0 gives businesses the confidence to expand, innovate, and contribute more strongly to India's growth story.

Prime Minister Shri Narendra Modi addressed Kartavya Bhavan inauguration programme at Kartavya Path, New Delhi

The Prime Minister Shri Narendra Modi addressed the inauguration programme of Kartavya Bhavan-3 at Kartavya Path, New Delhi on 6th August 2025. Speaking on the occasion, he remarked that August, the month of revolution, has brought yet another historic milestone ahead of 15th August. He highlighted that India is witnessing, one after the other, key achievements associated with the making of a modern India. Referring to New Delhi, Shri Modi listed recent infrastructural landmarks: Kartavya Path, the new Parliament Building, the new Defence Offices Complex, Bharat Mandapam, Yashobhoomi, the National War Memorial dedicated to the martyrs, and the statue of Netaji Subhash Chandra Bose and now the Kartavya Bhavan. Emphasising that these are not merely new buildings or regular infrastructure, the Prime Minister said that in the Amrit Kaal, the policies shaping a developed India will be formulated in these very structures, and in the coming decades, the nation's trajectory will be determined from these institutions. He extended congratulations to all citizens on the inauguration of Kartavya Bhavan and also expressed gratitude to the engineers and Shramjeevis involved in its construction.

Shri Modi stated that the building was named 'Kartavya Bhavan' after deep contemplation, pointing out that both Kartavya Path and Kartavya Bhavan echo the core spirit of India's democracy and its Constitution. Quoting the Bhagavad Gita, the Prime Minister recalled Lord Shri Krishna's teachings that one must rise above thoughts of gain or loss and act in the spirit of duty alone. He emphasized that in Indian culture, the word 'kartavya' is not limited to responsibility alone but embodies the essence of India's action-oriented philosophy. The Prime Minister further described it as a grand perspective that goes beyond the self to embrace the collective, representing the true meaning of kartavya. Remarking that Kartavya is not merely the name of a building, the Prime Minister highlighted that it is the sacred ground for realizing the dreams of crores of Indian citizens. "Kartavya is both the beginning and the destiny, bound by compassion and diligence, Kartavya is the thread of action, it is the companion of dreams, the hope of resolutions, and the pinnacle of effort", said

Shri Modi. He expressed that Kartavya is the force of will that lights a lamp in every life, underlining that Kartavya is the foundation for safeguarding the rights of crores of citizens. He further stated that Kartavya is the carrier of the life energy of Maa Bharati and is the chanting of the mantra 'Nagarik Devo Bhava'. He further added that every act done with devotion towards the nation is Kartavya.

He highlighted that for decades after Independence, India's administrative machinery operated from buildings constructed during the British colonial era, the Prime Minister acknowledged the poor working conditions in these old administrative buildings, which lack adequate space, lighting, and ventilation. He remarked that it is difficult to imagine how an important ministry like the Ministry of Home Affairs has functioned for nearly 100 years from a single building with insufficient infrastructure. Pointing out that various ministries of the Government of India currently operate from 50 different locations across Delhi, Shri Modi said that many of these ministries are functioning out of rented buildings. He underlined that the annual expenditure on rental costs alone is staggering—amounting to ₹1,500 crore. The Prime Minister stated that such a large sum is being spent merely on rent for scattered government offices, emphasizing another challenge: the logistical movement of personnel due to this decentralization. He noted that an estimated 8,000 to 10,000 employees travel daily between ministries, resulting in the movement of hundreds of vehicles, generating high expenditure and increasing traffic congestion. He asserted that the resultant loss of time directly impacts administrative efficiency.

Emphasizing that 21st century India requires 21st century modern buildings, Shri Modi underlined the need for structures that are exemplary in terms of technology, security, and convenience. He noted that such buildings should enable a comfortable environment for staff, facilitate swift decision-making, and ensure seamless delivery of services. Stating that large-scale buildings like Kartavya Bhavan are being constructed around Kartavya Path with a holistic vision, the Prime Minister noted that while the first Kartavya Bhavan has been completed, the construction of several other Kartavya Bhavans is progressing rapidly. He highlighted that once these offices are shifted to the new complexes, employees will benefit from an improved working environment along with access to necessary amenities, which in turn will enhance their overall work output. Shri Modi remarked that the government will also save the ₹1,500 crore currently being spent on rent for scattered ministry offices.

“The grand Kartavya Bhavan and other major infrastructure projects, including the new Defence Complexes, are not only a testament to India’s pace but also a reflection of its global vision”, exclaimed the Prime Minister. He stated that the vision India is offering to the world is being adopted within the country as well, and this is evident in its infrastructure development. Highlighting India’s global contributions such as Mission LiFE and the ‘One Earth, One Sun, One Grid’ initiative, Shri Modi affirmed that these ideas carry the hope for humanity’s future. He pointed out that modern infrastructure like Kartavya Bhavan embodies a pro-people spirit and a pro-planet structure. Underlining that rooftop solar panels have been installed in Kartavya Bhavan, the Prime Minister noted that advanced waste management systems have also been integrated into the building with the vision of green buildings now expanding across India.

Affirming that the government is engaged in nation-building with a holistic vision, the Prime Minister emphasised that no part of the country is untouched by the stream of development today. He noted that while Delhi has witnessed the construction of the new Parliament building, over 30,000 Panchayat Bhavans have been built across the nation. Shri Modi pointed out that alongside landmark buildings like Kartavya Bhavan, over four crore pucca houses have been constructed for the poor. He added that the National War Memorial and Police Memorial have been established, while more than 300 new medical colleges have been built across the country. The Prime Minister further mentioned that while Bharat Mandapam has come up in Delhi, more than 1,300 Amrit Bharat Railway Stations are being developed nationwide. He added that the grandeur of Yashobhoomi reflects the scale of transformation, as seen in the construction of nearly 90 new airports over the past 11 years.

Recalling Mahatma Gandhi's belief that rights and duties are intrinsically linked, and that the fulfillment of duties strengthens the foundation of rights, Shri Modi stated that while duties are expected from citizens, the government too must uphold its responsibilities with utmost seriousness. He emphasized that when a government sincerely fulfills its duties, it is reflected in its governance. The Prime Minister affirmed that the last decade has been marked as a decade of Good Governance in the country. He stated that the stream of good governance and development stems from the riverbed of reforms, describing reforms as a consistent and time-bound process, adding that India has continuously undertaken major reforms. "India's reforms are not only consistent but also dynamic and visionary", stated Shri Modi highlighting the ongoing efforts to strengthen government-citizen relations, enhance Ease of Living, prioritize the underserved, empower women, and improve administrative efficiency. He remarked that the country has been innovating continuously in these areas. "Over the past 11 years, India has developed a governance model that is transparent, sensitive, and citizen-centric", highlighted the Prime Minister.

He highlighted that in every country he visits, the JAM Trinity—Jan Dhan, Aadhaar, and Mobile—is widely discussed and appreciated globally, the Prime Minister emphasized that JAM has made the delivery of government schemes in India transparent and leakage-free. He remarked that people are often astonished to learn that across schemes such as ration cards, gas subsidies, and scholarships, there were nearly 10 crore beneficiaries whose existence was unverifiable—many of whom had not even been born. Noting that previous governments were transferring funds in the names of these fake beneficiaries, resulting in funds being diverted to illegitimate accounts, Shri Modi affirmed that under the present government, all 10 crore fraudulent names have been eliminated from beneficiary lists. He shared the latest figure indicating that this action has saved the nation over ₹4.3 lakh crore from falling into the wrong hands and this substantial amount is now being channelled into developmental initiatives. The Prime Minister added that both the genuine beneficiaries are satisfied and national resources have been safeguarded.

Emphasized that beyond corruption and leakages, outdated rules and regulations have long been a source of hardship for citizens and have hindered governmental decision-making, Shri Modi noted that to address this, over 1,500 obsolete laws—many remnants of the colonial era—have been repealed, as they continued to obstruct governance for decades. He further highlighted that compliance burdens had also posed significant challenges citing that for even basic undertakings, individuals were previously required to submit numerous documents. The Prime Minister informed that in the last 11 years, more than 40,000 compliances have been eliminated, and this rationalization continues at a steady pace. The Prime Minister observed that earlier, overlapping responsibilities across departments and ministries led to delays and bottlenecks. To streamline functioning, several departments were integrated, duplication was eliminated, and where necessary, ministries were either merged or newly created. Shri Modi cited the formation of key ministries such as, Ministry of Jal Shakti for ensuring water security, Ministry of Cooperation to empower the cooperative movement, Ministry of Fisheries, created for the first time to prioritize the sector and Ministry of Skill Development and Entrepreneurship to focus on youth empowerment. He affirmed that these reforms have enhanced the efficiency of governance and accelerated the delivery of public services.

Underlined that efforts are underway to upgrade the working culture of the government, the Prime Minister highlighted initiatives such as Mission Karmayogi and digital platforms like i-GOT, which are empowering government employees with technical and professional training. He emphasized that systems such as e-Office, file tracking, and digital approvals are revolutionizing administrative processes—making them not only faster, but also fully traceable and accountable.

Stating that moving into a new building inspires a renewed sense of enthusiasm and significantly elevates one's energy, the Prime Minister urged all present to carry forward their responsibilities in the new building with the same vigour and dedication. He encouraged every individual—regardless of position—to strive to make their tenure truly memorable. The Prime Minister emphasized that when one eventually demits from here, it should be with the sense of pride that they have given their hundred percent in the service of the nation.

Underscored the need to change perspective towards files and documentation, Shri Modi observed that while a file, a grievance, or an application may appear routine, but for someone, that piece of paper may represent their deepest hope. A single file could be intricately linked to the lives of countless individuals. Illustrated the point, the Prime Minister stated that if a file which concerns one lakh citizens is delayed by even one day, it results in the loss of one lakh human days. He urged officials to approach their responsibilities with this mindset, recognizing the immense opportunity to serve beyond convenience or routine thought. The Prime Minister emphasized that generating a new idea could potentially lay the foundation for transformative change. He called upon all public servants to remain deeply committed to nation-building with a spirit of duty, reminding them that India's dreams of development are nurtured in the womb of responsibility.

The Prime Minister remarked that while this may not be the moment for criticism, it certainly is one for introspection. He pointed out that several nations which gained independence around the same time as India have advanced rapidly, whereas India's progress was comparatively slower due to various historical challenges. Shri Modi emphasized that it is now our responsibility to ensure that these challenges are not passed on to future generations. Reflecting on past efforts, the Prime Minister stated that within the walls of older buildings, important decisions and policies were made due to which 25 crore citizens came out of poverty. He asserted that with enhanced efficiency in new buildings, the mission is to completely eradicate poverty and realize the dream of a developed India. Shri Modi called upon all stakeholders to work collectively towards making India the world's third-largest economy, encouraging everyone to contribute to the success stories of initiatives like Make in India and Atmanirbhar Bharat. He urged a commitment to scaling up national productivity, ensuring that when tourism is discussed, India becomes a global destination, when brands are mentioned, the world turns its gaze toward Indian enterprises and when education is sought, students from across the globe choose India. He added that strengthening India's capabilities must become a shared pursuit and personal mission.

Stated that when successful nations move forward, they do not abandon their positive legacy but preserve it, Shri Modi affirmed that India is advancing with the vision of 'Vikas aur Virasat'. Following the inauguration of new Kartavya Bhavans, the Prime Minister announced that the historic North and South Blocks will now be transformed into part of India's living legacy. These iconic buildings will be converted into public museums named "Yuge Yugeen Bharat Sangrahalaya," allowing every citizen to witness and experience India's rich civilizational journey, he said. The Prime Minister concluded by expressing confidence that as people enter the new Kartavya Bhavan, they will carry with them the inspiration and heritage embodied in these spaces. He extended heartfelt congratulations to the citizens of India on the inauguration of Kartavya Bhavan.

Union Ministers, Parliamentarians and officials of the Government of India were present among other dignitaries at the event.

MSME Success Stories of Entrepreneurs

Turning Struggles into Sweet Success

Inspiring journey of Mr. Devendra

This is an inspiring journey of Mr. Devendra Chourasiya who is living in Rajasthan and pursuing his MA. During his studies, life threw him a curveball — his father's bakery, once the pride of the family, needed him more than ever. With the weight of responsibility on his shoulders, he stepped in — not out of choice, but out of love. Having grown up in the warm aroma of baked goods, the bakery felt like home. He had big dreams for it, but no financial backing to make them real. Just when things felt impossible, a friend introduced him to the PMEGP scheme of the Ministry of MSME, and that moment changed everything. With the training and loan he received, Mr. Devendra upgraded the bakery with better machinery, expanded his product line, and streamlined operations. Slowly but surely, the bakery blossomed.

Today, he proudly runs his enterprise with 15 employees and an annual turnover of ₹82 lakh. Mr. Devendra's story is not just about baking; it's about resilience, hope, and the power of second chances. He credits the PMEGP scheme for helping him rise when everything seemed to fall apart.

A Journey from Repair Shop to building Enterprise

Inspired by the desire to improve their standard of living and provide the best facilities for their family, Mr. Manish, along with his wife founded M.K. Industries in 2019. Mr. Manish Kumar used to repair the cooler motor and manage the household on a limited income. His wife, Mrs. Neelam Rani, an educated woman, recognized his skills and hard work and encouraged him to start a cooler motor manufacturing company but Mr. Manish had no money to build his enterprise.

However, his friend brought a ray of hope for him when he told about PMEGP scheme of Ministry of MSME with guidance of his friend, he availed a loan under the PMEGP scheme from a bank. With financial assistance he purchased the necessary equipment for establishing his enterprise namely M.K. Industries. Today he is a successful entrepreneur, annual turnover is ₹ 25 lakh. He is providing employment around 15 people.

About the Ministry

The Micro, Small and Medium Enterprises (MSME) sector has emerged as a highly vibrant and dynamic sector of the Indian economy over the last five decades. MSME not only play a crucial role in providing large employment opportunities at comparatively lower capital cost than large industries but also help in industrialization of rural & backward areas, thereby, reducing regional imbalances, assuring more equitable distribution of national income and wealth. MSME are complementary to large industries as ancillary units and this sector contributes enormously to the socio-economic development of the country. The Ministry of Micro, Small & Medium Enterprises (M/o MSME) envisions- a vibrant MSME sector by promoting growth and development of the MSME Sector including Khadi, Village and Coir Industries, in cooperation with concerned Ministries/Departments, State Governments and other Stakeholders, by providing support to existing enterprises and encouraging creation of new enterprises.

The National Board for Micro, Small and Medium Enterprises (NBMSME) was established by the Government under the Micro, Small and Medium Enterprises Development Act, 2006 and Rules made thereunder. It examines the factors affecting promotion and development of MSME, reviews existing policies and programmes and makes recommendations to the Government in formulating the policies and programmes for the growth of MSME.
